

PORTLAND, OR-This Saturday, September 28th, Congressman Earl Blumenauer will moderate a community forum on the proposed military action in Iraq. A panel of experts will discuss the history of war in Iraq, constitutional war powers, nation building, the potential impacts on the people of Iraq and the role of the United Nations. Panelists will answer audience questions submitted on note cards at the end of the forum